

V. For the unity of Christians

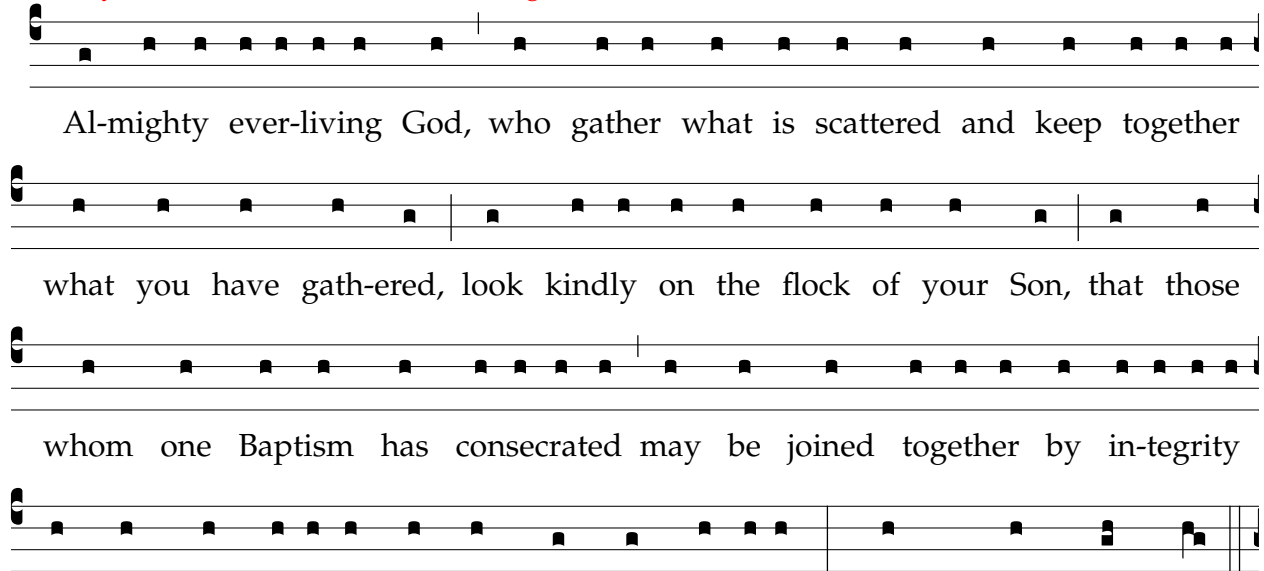

The Deacon or lay minister sings:

Let us pray al-so for all our brothers and sisters who be-lieve in Christ, that our God and Lord may be pleased, as they live the truth, to gather them to-geth-er and keep them in his one Church.

The musical notation consists of three staves. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of text. The second staff contains the melody for the second line of text. The third staff contains the melody for the third line of text. The notation is in a simple, square-note style, typical of traditional hymn books.

Prayer in silence. Then the Priest sings:

Al-mighty ever-living God, who gather what is scattered and keep together what you have gath-ered, look kindly on the flock of your Son, that those whom one Baptism has consecrated may be joined together by in-tegrity of faith and un-i-ted by the bond of char-i-ty Through Christ our Lord.

The musical notation consists of four staves. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of text. The second staff contains the melody for the second line of text. The third staff contains the melody for the third line of text. The fourth staff contains the melody for the fourth line of text. The notation is in a simple, square-note style, typical of traditional hymn books.
