response	O God, my God, for thee my soul hath thirsted.
verse 2	O God, my God, for thee my soul hath thirsted: For thee my flesh, O how many ways!
verse 3	In a desert land, and where there is no way and water: so in the sactuary have I come before thee, to see thee in thy power and glory.
verse 4	For thy mercy is better than lives: thee my lips shall praise.
verse 5	Thus will I bless thee all my life long: and in thy name I will lift up my hands.
verse 6	Let my soul be filled as with marrow and fatness and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips.
verse 8	Because thou hast been my helper. And I will rejoice under the covert of thy wings.
verse 9	My soul hath stuck close to thee: thy right hand hath received me.
